Important Information

GENERAL INFORMATION

Applicants may use this form to claim a property tax exemption for freeport goods pursuant to Texas Constitution Article 8, Section 1-j, and Tax Code Section 11.251. The current year's exemption amount is normally based on the percentage of inventory made up by such goods last year. The exemption applies to items in inventory that:

- are or will be forwarded out of Texas within 175 days of the date you acquire them or bring them into Texas; and
- are in Texas for assembling, storing, manufacturing, repair, maintenance, processing or fabricating purposes.

For aircraft parts, a taxing unit's governing body may, by official action, extend the deadline by which freeport goods must be transported outside of the state to no more than 730 days after acquiring or importing the property into the state. This exemption does not apply to oil, natural gas or liquid or gaseous materials that are immediate derivatives of oil or natural gas refining as defined by Comptroller Rule 9.4201.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

This form and all supporting documentation must be filed with the appraisal district office in each county in which the property is taxable. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

File this form and all supporting documentation with the appraisal district between Jan. 1 and April 30 of the tax year for which you request the exemption. If the chief appraiser extends the deadline for the property owner to file a rendition statement or property report to May 15 under Tax Code Section 22.23(b), the chief appraiser must also extend the deadline for the property owner to file this application to May 15.

For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline by written order for a single period not to exceed 60 days. The chief appraiser may disapprove the application and request additional information. If the chief appraiser requests additional information, applicants must furnish the information within 30 days after the request date or the chief appraiser will deny the application.

For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for furnishing the information by written order for a single period not to exceed 15 days. Applicants can protest the denial with the appraisal review board under Tax Code Chapter 41.

A late application must be filed on or before the later of June 15, or if applicable, the 60th day after the date the chief appraiser delivers notice to the property owner under Tax Code Section 22.22, for the year for which the applicant requests the exemption.

PENALTIES

Pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.4391, if a the chief appraiser approves a late application, the property owner is liable to each taxing unit allowing the exemption for a penalty in an amount equal to the lesser of:

- 10 percent of the difference between the amount of tax imposed by the taxing unit on the inventory or property, a portion of which consists of freeport goods, and the amount that would otherwise have been imposed;
- or 10 percent of the amount of tax imposed by the taxing unit on the inventory or property, a portion of which consists of freeport goods.

ANNUAL APPLICATION REQUIRED

This exemption requires an application each year.
